Just a note...

It is hard to believe that we celebrated 100 days of school, and it is the middle of February!

The fifth graders did a great job playing the chimes and singing for Grandparents Day. Their next performance is the spring concert.

We are still working on various service projects for the military. First, we made Valentine's cards for a 104, WWII veteran. This week we are making cards for Mrs. Gitter's father, who is going on an honor flight.

Thank you,

Ms. Schaalma
